Dear Mr Drinnan:

Thanks for your letter of May 24, which I find on my retrun from Tennessee. Yes, I d love to see you. In fact, I have to be in New York before taking off for the summer, and in a day or so I'll ring up to try to make a date . Meanwhile, only if you think the idea good, I can mail you some xeroxes of my Jefferson Lectures , which I am now retouching for a little book the Harvard Press is to to do, and anoth r couple of items which might give some line on topics possible for the interview -- if the thing materializes. These are for your eye and not for general circulation, and would be intended simply as a general possibility in approach. Anyway ,they would indicate some of my random thoughts.

If you want to see these, let me know.

Best regards,

ROBERT PENN WARREN

Dear Mr. Warren:

It's good of you to reply so quickly and I look forward to seeing you when you are in New York.

We have copies of the Jefferson Lectures but please send along the additional material you mention in your letter. I understand that it is not for circulation and I will guard it accordingly.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
